Hi Sue,

I've looked through the draft, and accepted changes where I think appropriate, and highlighted some things that I think you might want to take a look at. These shouldn't take too long?

I've attached the latest draft to this email. I'll move it to the server Monday when I'm back in the office.

Oh, and I haven't worked in the table Samantha emailed us about on Sunday (inclusion/exclusion criteria for the literature search).

Here's the list of issues that I think are still remaining:
